

Report for Fiscal Year 2008-2009

Our programs are continuing to center on these objectives:

1. Creating youth leaders who are dedicated to building an inclusive community
2. Reducing prejudice and promoting empathy
3. Building inter-religious partnerships and understanding
4. Preventing conflict and violence
5. Assisting and advocating for victims of violent crimes

We accomplish our objectives in community through the following programs:

- Camp Everytown
- Common Ground Enrichment Institute
- Building Connections
- Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Student Writing, Art & Multimedia Contest
- Leadership Today
- Extremes of Hate: Holocaust Studies & Critical Thinking
- Interfaith Dialogues
- Victim Witness Assistance Center
- Flash Judgments

This past year, Silicon Valley FACES has:

- Assisted more than 8,700 victims of violent crimes
- Educated 9,500 students of all ages
- Harnessed services of 350 community volunteers
- United 70 leaders from a range of religious traditions
- Impacted the lives of thousands of Silicon Valley residents

777 N. First Street, San Jose, CA 95112
408-286-9663 x326

www.svfaces.org <http://svfaces.blogspot.com>